TO ALL THE DESCENDANTS.

It is desired by this limited Publication, to transmit to our Posterity, as far as can be ascertained,—a correct Family Record; that we may acquire some knowledge of our Ancestors, and know of those whose blood flows in our veins, and to whom we are indebted, not only for our traits of character, but indeed for our very being.

May it not be said of us, nor of those who come after us, that we do not even know the names of our Grand-parents; nor may we be utterly unconscious, that any individual ever existed, who was our Great-grandfather!

May we be spared the humiliating thought, —that after acting our parts in life, and some of us living to a good old age—we will not then so truly have passed away,—as have now the Parents of James Wood (the Seventh), and also those of Charity Chandler,—that the least vestige of Ancestry can scarcely be obtained; but may it ever be, through the owning of this Record by every living individual herein named,—that each and all of us, shall worthily live in the memory of our Descendants through all time, —transmitting to them a good name, a praise-worthy example, and the purest, noblest faith

With the kindest of thanks to each and all others besides the Committee, who have so painstakingly aided in the collection of material for this pleasing and valuable Record,—and with a request not to scan too closely omissions or errors, should such exist, as we have endeavored to have every name, date, residence, occupation, and other items, exactly as each relative preferred; we in conclusion, do modestly but confidently, offer this result of visitation, correspondence, and many months of unremunerated labor, to our living relations of the JAMES WOOD and CHARITY CHANDLER Family; closing with the poetical thought:

"We live for those who love us,
For those who know us true;
For the Heaven that smiles above us,
And awaits our spirits too,
For all human ties that bind us,—
For the work that God assigns us,
And the good that we can do."

Cincinnati, O., March 24, 1899.

HISTORICAL SKETCH.

JAMES WOOD, whose family descendants are here genealogically traced, was a native of Chatham, New Jersey.

It is claimed that his ancestors on the paternal side for six generations, were all first born sons, and named "James"; the earliest being among the original settlers of that state about 1664, coming previously from Plymouth, Massachusetts.

He had four brothers; Jesse, Jacob, Beriah and William; and two sisters,—Betsey, who married Abraham Burnett; and Deborah, who married Thomas Kelley; Beriah coming west and settling near Lebanon, Ohio, the others of the family remaining in New Jersey.

But little is known of his early history, except that in 1793, he with some companions, prospected through central Pennsylvania, and down the Ohio river to what was then called the "Miami Country"; of which several months journey he kept a Diary, which is still partially preserved.

In 1804 he came with his family to Cincinnati, having purchased a part of the McFarland Station Tract, comprising 660 Acres in Sections 24 and 30 of Columbia Township, seven miles northeast of the City, paying $3175.; and there he built a handsome brick residence, and cleared up from year to year, much of his land for cultivation; residing there until his death.

His Will—recorded in Book 8, page 255, Hamilton County, Ohio, Probate Court Records,—gave his wife a goodly share of Personal Estate, and the use of the "Mansion House" during her life; his daughters Polly and Charity each 35 acres of Land, and $1000 in Cash; his sons James and Isaac each 150 acres of Land; his son John 110 acres, his sons Lewis and William each about 90 acres; his daughter Betsey was given no Land, but $5000 in Cash; his sisters Betsey and Deborah, each $20 for remembrance; those receiving the less land having what was more favorably located; the south western portion of the Farm by its "Cross Roads," growing into what is now the Incorporated Village of Pleasant Ridge.

Some of the Children sold their possessions, and removed to far away localities; but several of the heirs of Lewis M. and William W. Wood, are still living on the original Purchase Tract in their own beautiful homes, which look out over magnificent and inspiring landscape scenery, the choicest of the Millcreek and Little Miami river valleys.

We regret here to add, that the Mansion House, which was so endeared to the Family and their Descendants, and prominent as a landmark for more than eighty years, was accidentally destroyed by fire, December 26th, 1897. One of the Great Grandchildren, however, residing near by, has taken special pains to prepare a picture of this noted dwelling, which we gladly place on a page of our Record.

CHARITY CHANDLER, his second wife, and our maternal ancestor,—was also from Chatham, New Jersey. We have been unable to obtain the names of her parents; but old letters in our possession, show that she had two brothers, Moses and John, and a sister Sarah, who never married.

She outlived her husband more than twenty-five years; occupying the Homestead, which in her later years, was also the home of her youngest son, William.

The utmost research and inquiry have failed to find whether any ancestor of James Wood, (the Seventh), or of Charity Chandler, were in the Colonial or Revolutionary Wars; the only obtainable record stating that James Wood (the Sixth), was Captain of an Alarm Gun Company, stationed for a time on a prominent Hill about a mile from Chatham, New Jersey.

Both of these, our Ancestors, were active and energetic in their Pioneer life; useful and respected in community; consistent members of the Pleasant Ridge Presbyterian Church; and faithfully trained their Children in the ways of uprightness. Their graves, with those of four of their Children,—John Chalmers Wood, Lewis Maxille Wood, Mrs. Betsey Wood Turritt, and William Wright Wood,—and also many others of their Descendants, are easily found in the Pleasant Ridge Cemetery, most beautiful for situation, adjacent to the Church where they worshiped for many years.

"And parted, thus they rest, who played
Beneath the same green tree;
Whose voices mingled as they prayed
Around one parent's knee."

CONCLUDING REMARKS.

Twenty-one years ago,—Feb. 1878,—I prepared a Record of the "JAMES WOOD FAMILY," which then included five Generations, and sent a Copy to each Relative, whose address was known. The object was to know each other better,—to make our joys, prosperity and local fame, a common heritage; and note our thinkers and workers, who had attained earth's substantial honors. There were then 198 living, 80 dead,—143 males, 113 females,—235 born in the Family, and 53 married into the Family, Total, 288.

The present Record, which includes six Generations, shows an increase of 250; making the Total, Feb. 1899, to be 539. (See page 4.)

Should another edition, a score of years hence, be desired,—I would kindly suggest, that each note in his or her Copy, all new items of themselves,—dates of births, marriages, and deaths,—membership in lodge, society or church,—change of P. O. address,—and when a death, the place of burial; so that the facts may be within reach of whoever undertakes such an arduous, but intensely interesting work.

And finally, as I close this last page of my year's labor of family love and good-will,—I think, how well it would be,—if some one, having time and inclination,—would visit the traditional localities in Essex County, New Jersey, and carefully search the records of Churches and Courts,—tracing back to when the first of the name of "Wood" and "Chandler" landed on our American shore; and thus bring valuable ancestral history to light, that otherwise might be to us forever unknown!

Yours most cordially and fraternally,

M. S. TURRILL.
